

Adam
Eve
Abram
Abraham
Sarai
Sarah
Lot Eleazar
Hagar
Ishmael Isaac Rebekah
Jacob Israel
Esau
Laban Rachel Leah
Joseph Benjamin
Gad
Asher
Rueben
Simeon
Levi
Judah Issachar
Zubulan
Dan Naphtali
Potiphar
Potiphar's wife
Pharaoh
Vizier
Moses Amram
Yocheved
Miriam
Aaron
Ramses
Zipporah
Jethro
Joshua

The Ten Plagues

The "big questions" that tend to form the basis for the world's religions.

The seven dimensions of religion outlined in the text.

religion
mystery suffering
human condition ethics transcend salvation condemnation ultimate reality
cosmology

theistic religions
non-theistic religions monotheism polytheism pantheism divine deity theology revelation
myth

Rosh Hashanah (What does it mean? When is it celebrated? Why is it celebrated? How is it celebrated in modern times?)

Yom Kippur (What does it mean? When is it celebrated? Why is it celebrated? How is it celebrated in modern times and in Biblical times?)

Ramadan (When is it celebrated? Why is it celebrated? How is it celebrated? Who celebrates it?)

The Julian and Gregorian calendars (What's the difference? Where did they come from? How do they work?)

St. Francis of Assisi (Who was he? What lessons does his life teach about faith and holiness?)

Samuel
Saul
David

What is holiness?

holy sacred saint

How and why are saints canonized by the Catholic Church?

What unique ideas did Abraham give to the world? (Abrahamic Monotheism)

What three major religions are based upon the teachings of Abraham?

Patriarch Tetragrammaton
YHWH
Bible
Tanakh
Torah
Pentateuch
Chumash Genesis

Exodus
Leviticus Numbers
Deuteronomy
Nevi'im
Ketuvim
Talmud
Semitic Hebrew
Jew
Israel
Religious Jew Cultural Jew

tabernacle altar ambo presider's chair
crucifix candles Lectionary Missal
chalice
the liturgical colors (white, red, purple, green) chasuble stole alb